MEXICAN

CHIMI'S

1304 E. 15th St., 587-4411; 5320
S. Harvard Ave., 749-7755;

The complimentary tortilla chips and chunky salsa have been mainstays since the first Chimi's opened in 1983, across the street from its current 15th Street location. Chimichangas, burritos and flautas are popular entrees, and combos offer a wide selection of items.

AMERICAN

SIDELINE SPORTS BAR & GRILL

5936 S. Lewis Ave., 742-3499

This 21-year-old bar pays way more attention to the food than most places of its type. One can find such items as a N.Y. strip steak, char-broiled chicken breast sandwich, big burgers, jumbo fried shrimp and outstanding onion rings. Chicken-fried steak is a popular special on Thursday and Friday.

FINE DINING

MICHAEL V'S

8222 E. 103rd St., 369-0310

★★★★ / $$$ / L-D

Veal Oscar, sauteed with crab meat, asparagus spears and bearnaise sauce, is one of the many delicious choices at Carol and Michael Minden's upscale yet comfy restaurant at the Palazzo Shopping Center. The menu is eclectic and ever-changing. Previous standouts have included mussels, pecan chicken and grilled pork chops.

CARRABBA'S ITALIAN GRILL

11021 E. 71st St. 254-8888;
4848 S. Yale Ave., 481-9500

This former regional eatery got a national push with an affiliation with Outback Steakhouse a few years ago. Pasta Weesie is an outstanding entree, and house-made desserts are terrific. Seats in front of the open kitchen are prized by diners who like to chat with the cooks.
