Judith Jane (Judy) Bewley was born in the Tulsa area on November 12, 1932, to Charles and Margaret Bewley. Her death occurred peacefully at home on Friday, November 15, 2013, at the age of 81.

Judy was a graduate of Central High School and then attended Northeastern State University in Tahlequah with a degree in Edc. She married Charles Bewley on July 15, 1956, and they raised three children. She was a loving wife, mother, and grandmother to her ten grandchildren. Judy was a dedicated member of First Christian Church, 3901 South 69th East Avenue, where she volunteered her time and talents to the church. She enjoyed watching their son Greg and his wife, Gill Miller, and their family as they participated in life with her. She loved her church and her community and was a devoted member of First Christian Church.

Judy’s love of music and music education began early in her life, and she continued to teach music at First Christian Church throughout her adult life. She was a member of the congregation for over 60 years, and she will be sorely missed by her family and friends.

Judy was preceded in death by her parents, Charles and Margaret Bewley, and her husband, Charles Bewley. She is survived by her children, Greg Bewley and his wife, Gill Miller, of Waco, TX; Ashley Bewley and her husband, Chris Pollock, of Dallas, TX; and Katie Bewley, of Grady, OK. She is also survived by five great-grandchildren, who were the love of her life and best friend.

Judy is survived by her children; her sisters, Judy Marx and husband Michael Marx and Janet Gering and husband Chris of Dallas, TX., and her brother, JD Underwood and Ken Ray Underwood, four daughters-in-law; Jordan Wesley Jacobs of San Diego, CA, and Kathy Jacob and husband Mitch of Tulsa, OK. She is also survived by nine grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.
