GRAY: Hey, what's up?

WELLS: Hey, just got, got through talking to JOKER.

JJ: What's up?

HR: Uh, he just wanted to touch base and he's through with his business in town right now. He's heading back here in a little bit. He said that TERRELL guy from uh, Chicago guy.

JJ: Yeah.

HR: He's, he's al-, already to go. He had his money to, together. And I said man, why don't you go ahead and uh, hook him up with two pounds since this is your last deal and then uh, you get to keep the money from uh, two pounds versus one pound. (Laughs) He goes that's right, that's right. I go well. He said what's the chances of uh, maybe finding a pound and not finding a pound and flipping it back to me. And I said no. Don't do that man.

JJ: Yeah.

HR: I said I'm not, I'm not saying it hasn't happened with some other guys. I said but not me. So uh, always playing the angles. Making sure I'm not being recorded.

JJ: Yep.

HR: And uh, so anyway he said this, this guy wants to maybe come back up in town Thursday. I said well make it Wednesday if you can but. He said I can probably make, make Wednesday happen. I said okay.

JJ: It's Tuesday now. That's tomorrow.

HR: No, next Wednesday.

JJ: Oh.

HR: So just F.Y.I.

JJ: Well cool.

HR: I said man, you need to get your exit uh, strategy worked out. And get,

get out of the business.

JJ: Yeah.

HR: I said if we, if we, if we would of caught you with a couple of pounds, you, you'd be down in Texas right now with the D.E.A. trying to set up your guy. He goes that's right. And I said man, you don't need that much money to live on.

JJ: Yeah.

HR: He said well I can't keep my money in the bank, man. My money's not clean. I can't put it in the bank. He said all, all I have is just uh, you know, stockpile of cash. I said well. It sounds like you're in a restaurant.

JJ: Yeah. No I'm at home, so.

HR: Oh. Well anyway, I just wanted to tell you that I talked to him.

JJ: Well cool.

HR: So. Everything's cool. Sounds like.

JJ: All right. Well yeah, just let me know. You were supposed to call me this week...

HR: He said he had six, six people in Wichita that said he lays off two. They're not any of them from Wichita. Said it's kind of a central meeting place in the country.

JJ: He does good.

HR: I'll, I'll keep that thing going. He says. I said well, you know, um, I'm not following, following you or looking for you, but you're gonna get busted eventually. You're gonna get robbed. And you're gonna kill somebody cause they robbed you. (Laughs) I said man, that's how the game is, man. It's a dangerous game.

JJ: Yeah.

HR: Need to back smooth out of it first chance you get.

JJ: Yeah, and that's what I told him too. So.

HR: So we'll see uh if he, and when he got out of the car, I said you know, if, if you get busted, you gonna look back and say man, those guys that warned me. I said yeah, I am, I am. I said well, don't get greedy. Do what you got to do and then exit. So anyway, hope, hope.

JJ: Well we'll see. Next week then, huh?

HR: Yeah. Uh, TERRELL.

JJ: Yeah.

HR: So we get that, we'll, we'll get him knocked off with two, two pounds and hopefully and then uh, he's through.

JJ: Okay.

HR: So.

JJ: Well, that'll work.

HR: I, I told him guys work, work for us for three reasons. I said uh, and then eventually they'll start having fun doing these deals, and then they're hooked. He goes, tell you the truth, I mean, I, I kind of like working with you and J.J. I, I don't know what his deal is, he said, but man, I thought we had something going there. And I go well, we like doing these deals. Don't, don't get me wrong. But we're limited. So anyway. I'll talk to you later, man.

JJ: All right, bro. Bye.

HR: Bye.
